It is agreed by the parties that certain employees shall work ten (10) consecutive days on with four (4) consecutive days off on a rotating basis. By way of illustration, attached hereto as Schedule A, is a work schedule for the year 1994 prepared and agreed upon jointly by the Employer and the Union. The Schedule attached hereto is not to be construed as requiring two employees to work at the Great Adventure plant on a year round basis. Employees shall staff the Great Adventure plant on a seasonal basis and as designated by management in the off-season.

B. All blue collar employees who work the weekend "Town" schedule during normal working hours shall receive a ten percent (10%) wage differential for working the assigned Saturday and Sunday.

D. Overtime shall be compensated for at the rate of one and one half ( $1\frac{1}{2}$ ) times the employee's regular base hourly pay.

E. Employees may interchange their weekend coverage on a dual voluntary basis, subject to approval by the Employer, with at least two (2) weeks advance notice to the Employer, absent an emergency situation.

F. All other overtime shall be distributed in seniority rotation order; if any employee is unable to perform such overtime work for any reason

1-6 minutes after start of shift - no deduction

If the Employer finds a need to expand working hours, they shall meet with the Union and negotiate any and all changes.

B. Overtime shall be compensated for at the rate of one and one half ( $1\frac{1}{2}$ ) times the employee's regular base hourly pay.

D. Compensatory time may be earned only for extraordinary work assignments and must be authorized in advance by the employee's supervisor. Employees who work unauthorized compensatory time will not be credited for that time. Compensatory time must be used within a three (3) month period following the month in which the compensatory time was earned. Compensatory time not used within this period will be forfeited, unless the employee has been prevented from using the compensatory time due to Authority business.

E. No white collar employees shall work alone in the front office at any time during business hours, except for meal or other breaks by other employees.

Section 1: The purpose of this grievance procedure is to secure an equitable solution to grievances as herein defined. The parties agree that the grievances should be resolved at the lowest possible administrative level, therefore, no grievance shall bypass any step of the grievance procedure except as expressly provided herein and any failure to prosecute a grievance within the time periods provided, shall constitute an absolute bar to relief and shall prohibit the grievant from prosecuting his grievance in any forum thereafter. This grievance procedure constitutes the sole and exclusive method for raising and disposing of controversies within the definition of this term.

Section 2: The term "grievance", as used herein, means any controversy arising over the interpretation of the expressed terms of this Agreement and may be raised by an individual employee, group of employees, or the Union, at the request of any such individual or group (hereinafter referred to as the "grievant").

Section 3: All grievances which may arise, shall be handled according to the following procedure:

A. Step One.

Within five (5) working days of the occurrence of the act giving rise to the grievance, the Union representative and the aggrieved employee must discuss the alleged grievance directly with his/her immediate supervisor and try to resolve the matter, prior to filing a formal grievance. 2. The Union representative and the aggrieved employee shall meet with the Executive Director or his/her designee within twenty (20) days of the filing of the written grievance. The Executive Director shall investigate the grievance and render a written response to the grievant with a copy to the Union representative, within twenty (20) days after the meeting.

- a. A statement of the facts constituting the grievance;
- b. the approximate time of occurrence;

4. Any written grievance failing to comport with the foregoing requirements shall be null and void, need not be processed by the Employer and shall constitute an abandonment of the grievance. The matters and persons specified and identified in a written grievance shall not be expanded upon or added to subsequent to its filing and the grievant shall be precluded from raising or presenting additional facts, witnesses, or contract provisions thereafter, except with the express written consent of the Employer, which shall not be unreasonably denied, unless such information was not reasonably discoverable at the time. This does not exclude the testimony of expert witnesses or the legal text of cases and exhibits.

C. Step Three.

In the event the grievance is not solved to the Unions satisfaction at Step Two, or in the event the Executive Director has not served a timely response at Step Two, then within five (5) days after the response date set forth at Step Two, the Union will present the written grievance and any written responses received at Step Two to the Commissioners. Upon receipt of the grievance by the Commissioners, the Union representative and the aggrieved employee shall meet with the Commissioners within twenty (20) days of moving to Step 3. The Commissioners shall investigate the grievance and render a written response to the grievant, with a copy to the Union representative, within twenty (20) days of the meeting. The Commissioners may elect not to meet or to render a decision. If the Commissioners fail to meet within twenty (20) days then the grievance moves to Step Four.

D. Step Four.

2. Within ten (10) days following a written request for arbitration of a grievance, one (1) representative of the Employer and one (1) representative of the Union shall jointly select a third neutral party to serve as arbitrator.

3. The Arbitrator shall be limited to the expressed terms of this Agreement and shall neither add to, detract nor modify the Agreement in arriving at a decision. The Arbitrator shall hold hearings promptly and shall submit a decision in writing which shall be final and binding on the parties. All expenses for the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Preparation and presentation expenses shall be borne separately by each party. The Arbitrator's decision shall be limited to the issues submitted and the Arbitrator shall only have jurisdiction to rule on grievances which pertain to an alleged violation or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 4: Any grievance shall be considered as settled on the basis of the last answer of the Employer if not appealed to the next Step or to Arbitration within the time limitations set forth herein. Time is of the essence.

Section 5: The Union's Local representatives shall have access to the Employer's office and Union members for the adjustment of disputes or discussions of official Union business, provided appointments have been made with the Executive Director in advance and such meetings do not disrupt the normal work schedule.

ARTICLE IX

DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

Section 1: It is the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to enforce and maintain proper discipline. To ensure that employees are informed when infractions or shortcomings are noted, a progressive disciplinary system will ordinarily be utilized. Should there be no further unsatisfactory conduct or performance within a two (2) year period, this action shall be expunged from the employee's record and will not be used against him/her in the future.

C. Step Three. Suspension Without Pay.

In the event that the employee fails to improve after both a personal interview and written reprimand, the immediate supervisor will bring the details to the attention of the Executive Director. If it appears that a suspension is necessary the Executive Director will issue a suspension letter to the employee. The letter will specify the reason for suspension and the length of time the employee will be suspended subject to the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel pertaining to local service. Should there be no further unsatisfactory conduct or performance within a five (5) year period, this action shall be expunged from the employee's record and will not be used against him/her in the future.

D. Step Four. Dismissal.

In the event that unsatisfactory conduct or performance persists, dismissal may be warranted. Under those circumstances, a dismissal notice will be issued in accordance with the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Department of Personnel pertaining to local service.
